 whi blamest thou not Jeremye of Anathot, that profesieth to zou? For on this thing 28 he sente to vs in to Babiloyne, and seide, It is long; bielde ze housis, and enhabite, and plaunte ze orcherdis, and ete ze the fruit of tho<sup>n</sup>. Therfor Sofonye, the preest, 29 redde this book in the eeris of Jeremye, the prophete. And the word of the Lord 30 was maad to Jeremye, and seide, Sende 31 thou to al the passyng ouer, and seie, The Lord seith these thingis to Semeye Neelamite, For that that Semeye profesiede zou to triste in a leesyng; therfor the Lord 32 seith thes thingis, Lo! Y schal visite on Semeye Neelamyte, and on his seed; and no man sittyng in the myddis of this puple schal be to hym; and he schal not se the good; which Y schal do to my puple, seith the Lord, for he spak trespassyng azens the Lord.

CAP. XXX.

This is the word, that was maad of the<sup>1</sup> Lord to Jeremye, and seide, The Lord 2 these wordis whiche Y spak to thee. For 3 lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y turne hem to the lond which Y zaf to the fadris of hem, and thei schulen haue it in possessioun. And these ben the wordis, 4 whiche the Lord spak to Israel, and to Juda, For the Lord seith these thingis, 5

 ne ther is his lyc; and tyme of tribula-the Lord of ostus, Y shal to-brose his ȝoc boondis; and aliens schulen no more be lordis of it, but thei schulen serue to her<sup>9</sup> Lord God, and to David, her kyng, whom Y schal reyse for hem. Therfor, Jacob,<sup>10</sup> my seruau<sup>t</sup>, drede thou not, seith the Lord, and Israel, drede thou not; for lo!

 Y schal saue thee fro a fer lōnd, and thi

 And Jacob schal turne aȝen, and schal

 For Y am with thee, seith the Lord, for<sup>11</sup>

CAP. XLVIII.

To Moab the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis. Wo on Nabo, for it is destried, and schent; Cariathiarym is takun, the stronge citee is schent, more in Moab, thei thou3ten yuel a3ens

Therfor thou beynge stille, schalt be stille, herden the 3ellyng of sorewe. Fle 3e, saue 6 3e 3oure lyues; and 3e schulen be as bromes in thi strengthis, and in thi tresouris, also thou schalt be takun. And Chamos schal go in to passyng ouer, the preestis therof and the princes therof togidere. And a 8 robbere schal come to ech citee, and no citee schal be sau3d; and valeis schulen perische, and feeldi places schulen be dis-tried, for the Lord seide. 3yue 3e the flour 9

the werk of God gilefuli; and he is cursid, that forbedith his swerd* fro blood†. Moab 11 was plenteouse fro his 3ong wexynge age, and restide in hise drastis, nether was sched out fro vessel in to vessel, and 3ede not in to passyng ouer; therfor his taaste chaungid. Therfor lo! daies comun, seith 12 the Lord, and Y schal sende to it ordeyn-ours, and arayeris of potels; and thei confoundid shal be Moab fro Camos, as confoundid is the hous of Irael of <sup>a</sup> Bethel, in 14 whiche it hadde trost. What maner sey 3ee, Stronge men wee ben, and stalwrthe

 Lord, for a3en the Lord he is rered out; and he shal hurtle the hond of Moab in his vomyng, and be shal in to scornynge<sup>g</sup> in to sleyuge, seith the kyng, the Lord of oostis is his name. The perischyng of 16 Moab is ny3, that it come, and the yuel therof renneth ful swiftli. Alle 3e that 17 ben in the cumpas therof, counforte it; and alle 3e that knowen the name therof, seie, Hou is the stronge 3erde brokun, the gloriouse staaf? Thou dwellyng of the 18 dou3tir of Dibon, go down fro glorie, sitte thou in thirst; for the distriere of Moab schal stie to thee, and he schal destrie thi strengthis. Thou dwellyng of Aroer, 19 stonde in the weie, and biholde; axe thou hym that fleeth, and hym that ascapide; seie thou, What bifelle? Moab is schent, 20 for he is ouercomun; 3elle 3e, and crye; telle 3e in Arnon, that Moab is destried.

 And doom is comun to the lond of the in to scorn. For whi, Israel, he was in to 27 scorn to thee, as if thou haddist founde hym among theues; therfor for thi wordis whiche thou spakist a3ens hym, thou schalt be led prisoner. 3e dwelleris of Moab, forschal answeare to hym in the multitude of hise vncleanness; that the hous of Israel<sup>5</sup> be takun in her herte, bi which thei 3eden seie thou to the hous of Israel, The Lord God seith these thingis, Be 3e conuertid, and go 3e awei fro 3oure idols, and turne awei 3oure faces fro alle 3oure filthis. For<sup>7</sup> lesse sister of hir. And Y hadde hem, and thei baren child, sones and dou3tris; sotheli the names of hem, Samarie Oolla, 5 and Jerusalem Ooliba. Therfor Oolla dide fornyacioun vpon me, and wexe shedden out her fornyacioun vpon hir.

 9 Therfor Y bitook hir in to the hoondis

 10 was woode. Thei vnhilliden the yuel

 11 Which thing whanne hir sistir Ooliba

 14 that o weye of bothe was defoulid, and whanne she see3 men peyntid in a wal,

 And Y hadde hem, and thei childiden

 Assiriens nei3ynge, clothid with iacinct, 6 princes, and magistratis, 3onge men of coueytise, alle kny3tis, and<sup>h</sup> stieris of horsis.
 And sche 3af hir fornyaciouns on hem, on 7 alle the chosun sones of Assiriens; and in alle on whiche sche was wood, sche was defoulid in the vncleennes of hem. Fer- 8 thermore and sche lefte not hir fornica-

 Therfor Y 3af hir in to the hondis of hir 9

 Thei diskuyderiden the schenschepe of hir; 10

 Egypt, and the tēetis of thi pubertee ben 22 togidre brokyn. Therfor, thou Ooliba, thes thingis seith the Lord God, Loo!
 Y schal reyse alle thi louteris azens thee, alle princis of princis, and the named 24 stiers of horsis. And thei shulen come vpon thee, maad redy with chaare and armed azens thee on eche syde with hauberioun, and sheeld, and helme; and I schal zyue before hem doom, and thei 25 shulen deme thee in her domys. And Y of Caldeis expressid 'with colouris', and 15 gird on the reynes with kniztis girdlis, and cappis peyntid in<sup>k</sup> the heedis of hem, the foormes of alle duykis, the licnesse of the sones of Babiloyne, and of the lond of Caldeis, in which thei weren born; 16 sche was wood on hem bi coueitise of hir izen, and sche sente messangeris to hem in to Caldee. And whanne the sones of 17 Babiloyne weren comun to hir, to the bed of tetis, thei defouliden hir in her letcheries of virgyns; and sche was de-foulid of hem, and the soule of hir was fillid of hem. Also sche made nakid hir 18 fornicaciouns, and diskuyered hir schen-schipe; and my soule zede awei fro hir, as my soule hadde go awei fro hir sistir.

 For sche multiplied hir fornicaciouns, and 19 hadde mynde on the daies of hir zongthe, in whiche sche dide fornicacioun in the lond of Egypt. And sche was wood in 20 letcherie on the liggyng bi of hem, whos

 Therfor, thou Ooliba, the Lord God seith 22

shal putte myn enuye<sup>o</sup>, or wraththe, in thee, which thei haunten with thee in woodnes; thei shulen kitte of thi noose and thin eeris, and whiche thingis shulen dwelle, thei shulen kytte of with swerd; thei shulen take thi sonys and thi dou3-tris, and thi last shal be deuoured in fier.

26 And thei shulen vnclthe thee thi clothis, and shulen take awei the vessels of thi 27 glorie. And Y shal make thi grete trespassis<sup>p</sup> for to reste of thee, and thi fornycacioun of the loond of Egipt; nether thou shalt reyse thin eyen to hem, and thou shalt no more haue mynde of Egipt.

28 For thes thingis seith the Lord God, Loo! Y shal bitake thee in to the hoondis of hem whom thou hatidist, in to the hoondis of whyche thi soule is fulfillid.

29 And thei shulen doo with thee in haate, and thei shulen take alle thi traueilis, and shulen leeue thee nakid, and ful of euyf fame; and the euyf fame of thi fornycaciouns, shal be shewid. Thi greet 30 trespas and thi fornycaciouns han don thes thingis to thee; for thou didist fornycacioun after heithen men, amonge whom thou art defoulid in ydolis of hem.

31 Thou wandridist<sup>q</sup> in the weye of thi sistir, and Y shal 3yue the cuppe of hir 32 in thin hoond. Thes thingis seith the Lord God, Thou shalt drynke the cuppe of thi sister, deep and brood; and thou shalt be in to scornynge, and vndirmowynge, whiche thou art moost able to take.

33 Thou shalt be fulfillid with drunkenes and sorewe, the cuppe of mournynge and heynes, the cuppe of thi sister Samarie.

34 And thou shalt drynke it, and drynke of vn to the drestis, and thou shalt deuoure the relyues of it, and thou shalt to-teere thi breestis, for I spak, seith the Lord 35 God. Therfor thes thingis seith the Lord God, For thou hast for3ete me, and caste me fer after thi bak, and thou beere thi grete trespassis<sup>r</sup> and thi fornycaciouns.

36 And the Lord seith to me, seiynge, Sone schulen kitte awei thi nose and thin eeris, and thei schulen sle with swerd tho thingis that weren left; thei schulen take thi sones and thi dou3tris, and thi laste thing schal be deuourid bi fier. And thei schulen 26 make thee nakid of thi clothis, and thei schulen take awei the vessels of thi glorie. And Y schal make thi greet trespasse to 27 reste fro thee, and thi fornycacioun fro the lond of Egipt; and thou schalt not reise thin 3zen to hem, and thou schalt no more haue mynde on Egipt. For the 28 Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal 3yue thee in to the hondis of hem whiche thou hatist, 'in to<sup>l</sup> the hondis of hem of whiche thi soule was fillid, and thei schu- 29 len do with thee in hatrede. And thei schulen take awei alle thi trauels, and thei schulen leeue thee nakid, and ful of schenschiipe; and the schenschiipe of thi fornycaciouns schal be schewid. Thi greet trespas and thi fornycaciouns han do these 30 thingis to thee; for thou didist fornycacioun aftir hethene men, among whiche thou were defoulid in the idols of hem. Thou 3edist in the weie of thi sister, and 31 Y schal 3yue the cuppe of hir in thin hond. The Lord God seith these thingis, 32 Thou schalt drinke the cuppe of thi sistir, the depthe, and the broodnesse; thou that art most able to take, schalt be in to scornynge, and in to mouwyng. Thou 33 schalt be fillid with drunkenesse and sorewe, with the cuppe of mourenyng and of heynes, with the cuppe of thi sister Samarie. And thou schalt drynke it, and 34 thou schalt drinke of til to the drastis, and thou schalt deuoure the relifs therof, and thou schalt to-reende thi brestis, for Y the Lord spak, seith the Lord God. Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, 35 For thou hast for3ete me, and hast cast forth me bihynde thi bodi, bere thou also thi greet trespas and thi fornycaciouns. of man, whether thou demyst Ooliba and Oolla, and shewist to hem the grete trespassis of hem? For thei han don auow-37 trie, and blood in the hoondis of hem, and thei diden fornyacioun with her ydolis; more ouere thei offren to hem her sonys for to be deuourid, whiche thei 38 gendriden to me. But and this thing thei diden to me, thei defouleden my seyntuaries in that dai, and thei prophaned, or maden vnhooli, my sabotis.

 39 And whanne thei offreden her sonys to her ydolis, and entriden my seyntuarie in that day, for to defoule it, and also thei diden thes thingis in the mydil of myn 40 hous. Thei senten to men comynge fro fer, to whom thei senten messengeris. And so loo! thei camen, to whom thou washidist thee, and al about anoyntidist thin eyen with oynement of wymmen, and art 41 ourned with wommans atyre. Thou hast setyn in a bed moost fayr, and a bord is ourned before thee; thou puttidist my tymyane, or encense, and myn oynement 42 vpon it. And a voys<sup>s</sup> of multitude ioiynge<sup>t</sup> without forth was in it; and in the men that weren led to of the multitude of men, and camen fro deseert, puttiden 43 rengis in the hoondis of hem, and faire corownys in the heedis of hem. And Y seide to hir, that is defoulid in auowtries, Now also this shal doo fornyacioun in 44 hir fornyacioun. And thei wenten to hir as to a womman hoore, so thei entriden to Oolla and to Ooliba, cursid 45 wymmen. Therfor thes men ben iust, thes shulen deme hem in doom of auowtres<sup>u</sup>, and in dome of sheding out blood; for thei ben auowtraris, and blood in the hoondis of hem, and with her ydolis thei 46 doon fornyacioun. Forsothe the Lord God seith thes thingis, 3it brynge the multitudis, and bitak hem in to noys and 47 raueyn; and be thei stonyd with stoonys of puplis, and be thei doluen with swerdis of hem. Thei shulen sle the sonys and

 38 me, thei defouleden my seyntuarie in that dai, and maden vnhooli my sabotis. And 39 whanne thei sacrifisiden her sonys to her idols, and entriden in to my seyntuarie in that dai, that thei schulden defoule it, thei diden also these thingis in the myddis of myn hous. Thei senten to men com-

 41 and a boord was ourned bifor thee; thou settidist myn encense and myn oynement on it. And a vois of multitude makynge 42 ful out ioye was ther ynne; and in men that weren brouzt of the multitude of men, and camen fro desert, thei settiden bies in the hondis of hem, and faire corouns on the heedis of hem. And Y seide to 43 hir, that was defoulid in auoutries, Now also this<sup>n</sup> schal do fornyacioun in hir fornicacioun. And thei entriden to hir; as to 44 a womman, an hoore, so thei entriden to Oolla and to Ooliba, cursid wymmen. Therfor these men ben iust, these schulen 45 deme thilke wymmen bi the doom of auoutressis, and bi the doom of hem that scheden out blood; for thei ben auoutressis, and blood is in the hondis of hem, and thei diden fornicacioun with her idols. For the Lord God seith these thingis, 46 Bring thou multitudis to<sup>o</sup> hem, and 3yue thou hem in to noise, and in to raueyn; and be thei stonyd with the stoonys of

 23 And the word of the Lord is maad to Wo to the schepherdis of Israel, that fed-of schepherdis? 3e eeten mylk, and weren 3 hilid with wollis, and 3e killiden that that that ther was no sheperd, forsothe nether sheperdis souȝten my floc, bot the sheperdis fedden hemself, and fedden not my 9 flockis; therefore, ȝe sheperdis, heer ȝee 10 the word of the Lord, These thingis saith the Lord God, Loo! I my self vpon the sheperdis; I shal aȝein seeke my floc of the hond of hem, and I shal make hem for to ceese, that thei na more feede my saith the Lord God, Loo! I myself shal aȝein seeke my sheep, and I shal visite the dai whan he shal be in the mydil of his scatered sheep, so I shal visite my sheep, and shal delyuere hem of alle places in whiche thei weren scatered, in 13 day of cloude, and derknesse. And I shal leede hem out of peplis, and I shal gadre hem of londis, and I shal leede hem into her lond, and I shal feede hem in the hillis of Yrael, in strondis, and in alle 14 seetis of erthe. In pasturis most plen-teuouse Y shal feede hem, and in the heeȝ mounteyns of Yrael the lesewis of hem shuln be; there thei shuln aȝein reste in erbis wexyngre greene, and in fat lesewis thei shuln be fed vpon the moun-15 teyns of Yrael. Y shal feede my sheep, and I shal make hem for to reste, saith 16 the Lord God. Y<sup>r</sup> shal aȝein seeke that that perishide, and I shal aȝein leede that that was cast away; and I shal bynd to that that was to gidre broken, and I shal coumforte that that was seek; and I shal keepe that that is fat and strong, and I 17 shal feede hem in dome; forsothe ȝe ben my flockis. These thingus saith the Lord God, Loo! I deeme bitwixe beest and beest, and wether and buc of geet.

18 Wher it was not ynewȝ to ȝou for to deof alle beestis of the feeld, for that that no scheepherde was, for the scheepherdis souȝten not my floc, but the scheepherdis fedden hem silf, and fedden not my flockis; therfor, scheepherdis, here ȝe the word of<sup>9</sup> the Lord, The Lord God seith these thingis, 10 Lo! Y my silf<sup>s</sup> am ouer scheepherdis; Y shal seke my floc of the hond of hem, and Y shal make hem to ceesse, that thei fede no more my floc, and that the<sup>t</sup> scheepherdis feede no more hem silf. And Y shal delyuere my floc fro the mouth of hem, and it shal no more be in to mete to hem.

For the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! 11 Y my silf shal seke my scheep, and Y shal visite hem. As a scheepherde visitith 12 his floc, in the dai whanne he is in the myddis of hise scheep that ben<sup>u</sup> scaterid, so Y shal visite my scheep; and Y shal delyuere hem fro alle places in whiche thei weren scaterid, in the dai of cloude, and of derknesse. And Y shal leede hem 13 out of puplis, and Y shal gadre hem fro londis, and Y shal bryngre hem in to her lond, and Y shal feede hem in the hillis of Israel, in ryueris, and in alle seetis of erthe. Y shal feede hem in moost plen- 14 teouse pasturis, and the lesewis of hem schulen be in the hiȝ<sup>v</sup> hillis of Israel; there thei schulen reste in greene eerbis, and in fatte lesewis thei schulen be fed on the hillis of Israel. Y shal fede my scheep, 15 and Y shal make hem to ligge, seith the Lord God. I shal seke that that pe- 16 that that was<sup>x</sup> fat and strong; and Y shal feede hem in doom; forsothe ȝe ben 17

CAP. XXXV.

1 And the word of the Lord is maad to 2 me, sayinge, Sone of man, putte thou thi face azeins the mount of Seir; and thou shalt prophecie to it, and shalt saye to 3 it, These thingis saith the Lord God, Loo! I to thee, mount of Seir; I shal strecche out myn hond vpon thee, and 4 I schal 3iue thee desolat and desert. I schal distrye thi citees, and thou schalt be desert; and thou schalt wite, for I the 5 Lord. For that that thou was an enemy euer lastynge, and closidist to gydre the sones of Yrael in to hondis<sup>a</sup> of swerd, in the tyme of her affliccioun, in the tyme 6 of the last wickidnesse; therfore Y lyue, saith the Lord God, for I shal bitake thee to blood, and blood shal pursue thee; and whann thou hatist bloode, blood shal 7 pursue thee. And I shal 3eue the hil of Seir desolat and desert, and I shal take away fro it a man goynge and turnynge with careyns of slayn men. In thi lital

CAP. XXXV.

And the word of the Lord was maad to 1 me, and he seide, Thou, sone of man, sette 2 tyme of her turment, in the tyme of the laste wickidnesse; therfor Y lyue, seith the 6 Lord God, for Y schal 3yue thee to blood, and blood schal pursue thee; and sithen thou hatidist blood, blood schal pursue thee. And Y schal 3yue the hil of Seir 7 desolat and forsakun, and Y schal take awei fro it a goere and a comere a3en; and Y schal fille the hillis therof with 8 the careyns of her slayn men. Men slayn by swerd schulen falle down in thi litle hillis, and in thi valeys, and in thi 9

 14 These thingis saith the Lord God, All erthe gladyng, I shal dryue thee in to

CAP. XXXVI.

1 Forsothe thou, sone of man, prophecie vpon the mounteyns of Yrael; and thou shalt saye, Hillis of Yrael, heere 3e the

 3 therfore prophecie thou, and saye, These thingus saith the Lord God, For that that 3e ben desolat and defoulid by cumpas, and maad in to eritage to other folkis, and 3ee steiziden vp vpon the lipp of

 5 other heithen men bi cumpas; therefore these thingus saith the Lord God, For in the fjr of my wrath I spake of other heithen men, and of al Ydume, that 3auen my lond to hem in to eritage in swerd, and al the herte, and of inwit, and castiden out it, that thei shulden waaste; 6 therfore prophecie thou vpon the erth of Yrael, and thou shalt saye to mounteyns, and smale hillis, to heizthis of hillis, and valeys, These thingis saith the Lord God, For that that 3e ben desolat, loo! I in my wrath and in my woodnesse haue spoken. For that that 3e susteyneden

CAP. XXXVI.

Forsothe thou, sone of man, profesie

 Yrael, These thingis saith the Lord God, Not for 3ou I shal do, 3e hous of Yrael, but for myn holy name, whom 3e defoulwhanne Y schal be halewid in 3ou before

CAP. XLVI.

The Lord God seith these thingis, The 1

 whanne this word was herd, the kyng

<sup>1</sup> I, Nabugodonosor, was quyet in myn saw<sup>3</sup> a sweuen, whiche feride me; and my thouztis in my bed, and siztis of myn hed, <sup>3</sup> to gidre troubliden me. And by me a decree was putte forth, that alle wijse men of Babiloyne shulden be ledde yn in my sizt, that thei shulden shewe to me the solucioun, or vndirstondyng, of the auters, wicches<sup>o</sup>, Caldeis, and dyuynours sijt of hem, and thei shewiden not to me <sup>5</sup> the solucioun therof, til a felowe of office entride in my sizt, Danyel, to whom the name Balthasar, after the name of my god, whiche hath the spirit of holy goddis in hym self; and I spac the sweuen bi-<sup>6</sup> fore hym. Balthasar, prince of dyuy-nours by autris, whom I wote, for thou hast in thee the spirit of holy goddis, and eche sacrament is not impossible to thee, telle thou to me the visions<sup>p</sup> of my <sup>7</sup> sweuens, and the solucioun of hem. The visioun of myn hed in my couche. I saw<sup>3</sup>, and loo! a tree in the mydil of erthe, <sup>8</sup> and the heijt therof ful myche. And a greete tree and stronge, and the nobley, or stretchinge out, therof touchyng he-uen, biholding therof was vnto termes of <sup>9</sup> al erthe. The leues therof most faire, and the fruyte therof ful myche, and beestis dwelliden, and wijlde beestis, and in bowis therof briddis of heuen lyuyden, <sup>10</sup> and eche fleshe eete of it. Thus I saw<sup>3</sup> in sizt of myn heued, vpon my bed. And loo! the waker, and holy came down from

I, Nabugodonosor, was restful in myn<sup>1</sup> hous, and flouryng in my paleis; Y si<sup>3</sup>

thouztis in my bed, and the siztis of myn Babiloyne schulden be brouzt in bfor my

the dreem in the sizt of hem, and thei schewiden not to me the soilyng therof, til the felowe in office, Danyel, to whom<sup>5</sup> the name was Balthasar, bi the name of my God, entride in my sizt, which<sup>s</sup> Danyel hath the spirit of hooli goddis in hym silf; and Y spac the dreem bfor hym. Baltha-<sup>6</sup>

Nethes suffre 3e the<sup>12</sup> seed of rootis<sup>w</sup> therof in erthe, and be he boondun with a boond of irun and of bras, in erbis that ben with out forth, and in tbe<sup>x</sup> deew of heuene be he died, and his part be with wielde beestis in the erbe<sup>y</sup> of erthe<sup>z</sup>. His herte be chaungid fro<sup>13</sup> mannus herte, and the herte of a wielde beeste be 3ouun to hym, and seuen tymes be chaungid on hym. In the sentence of<sup>14</sup> wakeris it is demed, and it is the word and axyng of seyntis, til lyuynge men knowe, that hi3 God is Lord in the rewme of men; and he schal 3yue it to whom euere he wole, and he schal ordeyne on it the mekeste man. Y, Nabugodonosor, the<sup>15</sup> kyng, si3 this dreem. Therfor tbou, Balthasar, telle hastili the interpretyng, for alle the wise men of my rewme moun not seie to me the soilyng; but thou maist, for the spirit of hooli goddis is in thee. Thanne<sup>16</sup> Danyel, to whom the name was Balthasar, began to thenke priueli with ynne hym silf, as in oon our, and hise thou3tis disturbliden hym. Forsothe the kyng answeride, and seide, Balthasar, the dreem and the interpretyng therof disturble not thee. Balthasar answeride, and seide, My lord, the dreem be to hem that haten thee, and the interpretyng therof be to thin enemyes. The tree which thou si3est hi3<sup>17</sup> and strong, whos hei3the stretchith<sup>b</sup> 'til to<sup>c</sup> heuene, and the biholdyng therof in to ech lond, and the faireste braunchis therof, and<sup>18</sup> the fruyt therof ful myche, and the mete of alle in it, and beestis of the feeld dwellynge vndur it, and the briddis of the<sup>d</sup> eir dwellynge in the boowis therof, thou art,<sup>19</sup> kyng, that art magnified, and wexidist strong, and thi greetnesse encreesside, and cam 'til to<sup>e</sup> heuene, and thi power in to the endis of al erthe. Forsothe that the kyng saw<sup>3</sup> the waker and hooly for to cum down fro heuen, and for to saye, Kitte <sup>3e</sup> down the tree, and scatre <sup>3e</sup> it, nethese leue the buriownyng of rootys therof in erthe, and be he bounden in yren and brasse, and in erbis with out forth, and dew of heuen be it spreyn to gydre, and with wylde beestis be his mete, til seuen tymes be chaungid vpon 21 hym; this is the interpretacioun of sentence of the heeizist, that came fully vpon 22 my lord kyng. Thei shuln cast thee out fro men, and with beestus and wijlde beestis thi dwellyng shal be, and thou shalt ete hay as an oxe, bot and in dewe of heuen thou shalt be inshed, and se-

 23 Forsothe that he comaundide, that buriownyng of rootis therof, that is to saye, of the tree, shulde be left, thi rewme shal dwelle to thee, after that thou shalt 24 knowe power for to be heuenly. Wherefore, kyng, my counseil plese to thee, and <sup>3e</sup>inby thou thi synnes with almes deedis, and thi wickidnessis with mercies of pore men; perauenture God shal for-

 26 camen on Nabugodonosor, kyng. After the eende of twelue monethis in the halle loyne, the grete citee, whiche I beeldide in to the hous of rewme, in<sup>u</sup> miȝt of my strengthe, and in glorie of my fairnesse?

 28 Therefore whann <sup>3it</sup> the word was in the kyngus mouthe, a voice felle fro heuen, To thee it is said, kyng Nabugodonosor, 29 Thi rewme passith fro thee, and fro men thei shuln caste out thee, and with beestis and wijlde beestis thi dwellyng shal be; thou shalt ete hay as an oxe, and seuen tymes shuln be chaungid vpon thee, til seed of rootis therof in erthe, and be he boundun with irun and bras, in erbis with out forth, and be he bispreynt with the deew of heuene, and his mete be with wielde beestis, til seuen tymes be chaungid on hym; this is the interpretyng of<sup>21</sup> the sentence of the hizeste, which sentence is comun on my lord, the kyng. Thei<sup>22</sup> schulen caste thee out fro men, and thi dwellyng schal be with beestys and wielde beestis, and thou schalt ete hey, as an oxe doith, but also thou schalt be bisched with the dew of heuene, also seuen tymes schulen be chaungid on thee, til thou knowe, that hiȝ God is Lord 'on the<sup>f</sup> rewme<sup>g</sup> of men, and <sup>3y</sup>ueth it to whom euer he wole. Forsothe that he comaundide, that the<sup>23</sup> seed of rootis therof, that is, of the tree, schulde be left, thi rewme schal dwelle to thee, aftir that thou knowist that the power is of heuene. Wherfor, kyng, my<sup>24</sup> counsel plese thee, and <sup>3e</sup>nby thi synnes with almesdedis, and *3e*nby thi wickidnessis with mercies of pore men; in hap God schal for<sup>3y</sup>ue thi trespassis. Alle<sup>25</sup> these thingis camen on Nabugodonosor, the<sup>h</sup> kyng. After the ende of twelue<sup>26</sup> monethis he walkide in the halle of Babiloyne; and the kyng answeride, and <sup>27</sup> seide, Whether this is not Babiloyne, the greet citee, which Y bildide in to the hous of rewme, in the miȝt of my strengthe, and in the glorie of my fairnesse? Whanne<sup>28</sup> the word was <sup>3it</sup> in the mouth of the kyng, a vois felle down fro heuene, Nabugodonosor, kyng, it is seid to thee, Thi rewme is passid fro thee, and thei schulen<sup>29</sup> caste thee out fro men, and thi dwellyng schal be with beestis and wielde beestis; thou schalt ete hey, as an oxe doith, and seuen tymes schulen be chaungid on thee, til thou knowe, that hiȝ God is Lord in the rewme of men, and <sup>3y</sup>ueth it to whom euere he wole. eend of days, Y, Nabugodonosor, reyside myn eeȝen to heuen, and my wit is ȝolden

I heriede, and glorifiede the lyuyng in Nabugodonosor herie, and magnyfie the kyng of heuen; for alle his werkis ben trewe, and his wayes domes; and he may make meke, or lowe, men goyng

Thanne, <sup>29</sup> for the kyng comaundide, Daniel was clothid in purpur, and a goldun bie was zouun aboute in<sup>z</sup> his necke; and it was prechid of hym, that he hadde power, and was the thridde in the rewme. ## CAP. VI.

1 It pleside to Darius, and he ordeynye on the rewme satraps an hundrid and twenti, that thei weren in al his rewme; 2 and on hem three princis, of whom Da-nyel was oon; that the satraps shulden jelde resoun to hem, and the kyng shulde 3 not suffre eny disese. Therfore Danyel ouercame alle princis and satraps, for the 4 more spirit of God was in hym. For-sothe the kyng thouȝte for to ordeyne hym on al the rewme. Wherfore princes and satraps souȝten for to fynde occa-sioun to Danyel, of syde of the kyng; and thei miȝten fynde no cause and suspicioun, for that that he was feithful, and eche blame and suspicioun was not 5 founden in hym. Therfore thilk men saiden, We shuln not fynde to this Danyel eny occasioun, no bot perauenprinces and satraps falsli tysiden, *or coun-that it be not chaungid whiche is ordeynyd of Medis and Persis, nether be 9 it leeful to eny man for to breke. For-sothe kyng Darius putte forth the decree, 10 and ordeynye. Whiche thing whanne Danyel had founden, that is to saye, the lawe ordeynyd, he wente in to his hous;

and the wyndowis opnyd in his soupyng

CAP. VI.

It pleside Darius, and he ordeynede sixe 1 score duykis ouer the rewme, that thei schulden be in al his rewme. And ouer 2 hem he ordeynede thre princes, of whiche Danyel was oon; that the duykis schulden jelde resoun to hem, and that the kyng schulde not suffre eny disese. Therfor 3 Danyel ouercam alle the princes and duikis, for more spirit of God was in
hym. Certis the kyng thouȝte to ordeyne 4 hym on al the rewme. Wherfor princes and duikis<sup>c</sup> souȝten to fynde occasioun to Danyel, of the side of the kyng; and thei miȝten fynde no cause and suspicioun, for he was feithful, and no blame and suspicioun was foundun in hym. Therfor tho 5 men seiden, We schulen not fynde eny ocasioun to this Danyel, no but in hap in the lawe of his God. Thanne the 6 princes and duykis<sup>d</sup> maden fals suggeshym, Kyng Darius, lyue thou with onten ende. Alle the princes of thi rewme, and 7 magistratis, and duykis, senatours, and iugis, han maad a counsel, that a decree out, that ech man that axith eny axyng for, kyng, conferme thou the sentence, and write thou the decree, that this<sup>f</sup> that is ordeyned of Medeis and Perseis be not chaungid, nethir be it leueful to eny man whanne Danyel hadde founde this thing, that is, the lawe ordeyned, he entride in weren open in his soler aȝens Jerusalem, in thre tymes in the dai he bowide hise

To whom the kyng answerynge saith, The word is trewe, vp the decree of Medis and Persis, whiche it<sup>m</sup> is not leeful tho men vndirstondyng the kyng, saiden to hym, Wite thou, kyng, for the lawe of Medis and Persis is, that eche decree whiche the kyng ordeyneth, be not leeful 16 for to be chaungid. Thanne the kyng comaundide, and thei ledden to Danyel, and senten hym into the lake of lyouns.

And the kyng sayde to Danyel, Thi God, whom thou wirshipidist euermore, he shal 17 delyuere thee. And a stoon is brougt to,
and is putt on the mouthe of the lake, whiche the kyng markide, or sealide, on 19 Thanne the kyng first in the mornyng a wepyng voice criede vn to Danyel, and

To whiche<sup>8</sup> men the kyng answeride, and seide, The word is soth, bi the decree of Medeis and<sup>h</sup> Perseis, which it is not leueful to breke. Thanne thei answeriden, 13 and seiden bifore the kyng, Danyel, of the sones of caitifte of Juda, reckide not of thi lawe, and of the comaundement, which thou ordeynedist, but thre tymes bi the dai he preieth in his bisechyng. And 14 whanne the kyng hadde herd this word, he was sori ynow, and he settide the herte for Danyel, for to do<sup>i</sup> delyuere hym; and til to the goyng doun of the sunne he tra-men vndurstoden the kyng, and seiden to hym, Wite thou, kyng, that it is the lawe of Medeis and of Perseis, that it is not leueful that ony decree be chaungid, which 16 the kyng ordeyneth. Thanne the kyng comaundide, and thei brouzten Danyel, and senten hym in to the lake of liouns.

And the kyng seide to Danyel, Thi God, whom thou worschipist euere, he schal delyuere thee. And o stoon was brougt, 17 which the kyng aselide with his ryng, the kyng zede in to his hous, and slepte beestis was takun awei, and the tymes of lijf weren ordeyned to hem, til to tyme foure rewmes, that schulen rise of erthe.

Forsothe hooli men schulen take the 18 rewme of hiȝeste God, and thei schulen

CAP. VIII.

In the thridde ȝeer of the rewme of 1 Balthasar, the king, a vision apperide to Susis, which is in the cuntrei of Helam; sotheli Y siȝ in the vision that Y was on sothe the buk hadde a noble horn bitwixe horned, whiche Y saw; stondynge byfore the zate, and he ran to hym in bir of his 7 strengthe. And whenn he neizede niȝ the wether, he dide crueli in to hym, and he smote the wether, and he brake to gidre two hornys of hym, and the wether miȝte not withstonde hym. And when he sente hym in to the erthe, he defoulide hym; and no man miȝte delyuere the wether of 8 his hond. Forsothe the buk of geet is maad grete ful miche; and whan he hadde waxen, the grete horn is brosten, and foure horns ben brouȝt forth vndir forsothe of hem oo litil horne wente out, and it is maad grete aȝeinus the south, and 10 And it is magnyfiȝd vnto the strengthe of heuen, and castide doun of strengthe vnto the prince of strengthe he is mag-nyfiȝd, and fro hym he toke the con-tynuel sacrifice, and castide doun the 12 place of halewyng of hym. Forsothe strengthe is ȝouen to hym aȝeinus the contynuel sacrifice for synnes, and trewth shal be cast doun in erthe; and he shal 13 haue prosperite, and shal do. And Y herde oon of the saintus spekyng; and oo saynt saide to an other, Y noote to whom spekyng, Hou longe deuysioun, and the contynuel sacrifice, and synne of desolacioun, or discoumfort, that is maad, 15 shal be clensid. Forsothe it is don, when Y, Danyel, sawe the visioun, and souȝte vndirstondynge, loo! there stode in my 16 siȝt as the fourme of man. And Y herde a voice of the man bytwixe Vlay, and he criede, and saith, Gabriel, make thou this the erthe; forsothe the buk of geet hadde a noble horn bitwixe hise iȝen; and he cam til to that horned ram, which Y hadde seyn stondynge bifore the zate, and he ran in the fersnesse of his strengthe to that ram. And whanne he hadde neizid 7 niȝ the ram, he hurlide<sup>h</sup> fersly on hym, and he smoot the ram, and al to-brak tweyne hornes of hym, and the ram miȝte not aȝenstonde hym. And whanne he hadde sent that ram in to erthe, he defoulide; and no man miȝte delyuere the ram fro his hond. Forsothe the buk of geet was maad ful greet; and whanne he hadde encreessid, the greet horn was brokun, and foure hornes risiden vndur it, bi foure wyndis of heuene. Forsothe 9 of oon of hem ȝede out o litil horn, and it was maad greet aȝens the south, and aȝens the eest, and aȝens the strengthe. And it was magnefied til to the strengthe of heuene, and it castide doun of the strengthe 11 he was magnefied til to the prince of strengthe, and he took awei fro hym the contynuel sacrifice, and castide doun the 12 was ȝouun to hym aȝens the contynuel sacrifice for synnes, and treuthe schal be

 And he seide to hym, Til to the<sup>l</sup> euentid

20 tyme hath his eende. The wether, or ram, whom thou hast seen for to haue hornys, is the kyng of Medis and Persis.
21 Forsothe the geet buk is the king of Grekis; and the grete horn that was bi-

CAP. III.

1 And the Lord saide to me, Ȝit go thou, and eche man that dwellith theryn shal be thei forsoken the Lord in not kepynge.

 11 Fornycacioun, and wijn, and drunkenesse thei maden sacrifice, and on litil hillis douzters shuln do fornicacioun, and 3our this thing the erthe schal mourne, and ech the profete also schal falle with thee; in the nigt Y made thi modir to be stille.

 My puple was stille, for it hadde not kun- 6

 Y<sup>s</sup> schal putte thee awei, that thou vse not presthod to me; and for thou hast forzete the lawe of thi God, also Y schal forzete thi sones. Bi the multitude of hem, so 7 thei synneden azens me. Y schal chaunge the glorie of hem in to schenschiipe. Thei<sup>s</sup> 8 thei schulen reise the soulis of hem to the wickidnesse of hem. And it schal be, as 9 the puple so the prest; and Y schal visite on hym the weies of hym, and Y schal thei schulen ete, and thei schulen not be the Lord shal feede hem as a lombe

CAP. V.

1 Heere ȝe, prestis, these thingis, and shul not ȝeue her thouȝtis, that thei turne aȝein to her God; for the spirit of fornicacioun in the mydil of hem, and thei 5 knewen not the Lord. And the pryde of Yrael shal answeere in to his face, and Yrael and Effraym shuln falle to gydre in her wikkidnesse; also Juda shall falle 6 with hem. In her flockis, and in her droues thei shuln go for to seke the Lord, and shuln not fynde; he is taken 7 away fro hem. In the Lord thei tresnow the monethe with her partis shal

 Gabaa, with trumpe in Rama; woule ȝe day of correctioun, and in lynagis of yden with hooris, and maden sacrifice with men turned in to wymmens condiciouns.

 And the puple that vndirstondith not, schal be betun. If thou, Israel, doist fornicaȝe entre in to Galgala, and stie ȝe not in to Bethauen, nether swere ȝe, The Lord

 16 awei; now the Lord schal fede hem as a lomb in broodnesse. Effraym is the par-17 tener of idols, leue thou him; the feest 18 of hem is departid. Bi fornicacioun thei diden fornicacioun, the defenders therof louyden to brynge schenschiþe. The spirit

CAP. V.

Preestis, here ȝe this, and the hous of

CAP. VII.

Whanne Y wolde heele Israel, the wick- 1

CAP. VIII.

1 In thi throte be a trumpe, as an egle

 And Y tauzte, and counfortide the armes<sup>15</sup>

A trumpe be in thi throte, as an egle<sup>1</sup>

 shal write to hym my manyfolde lawis, 13 whiche ben acomptid as alyen. Thei fleshis, and shuln ete; and the Lord shal not resceyue hem. Now he shal recorde the wickidnesse of hem, and shal visite the synnes of hem; thei shuln be turnyd maker, and beeldide templis, and Judas multipliede stronge citees; and Y shal sende fjr in to the citees of him<sup>r</sup>, and it shal deuoure the housis of hym.

CAP. IX.

1 Yrael, nyl thou glade, nyl thou ioye with outforth as peplis; for thou hast do fornicacioun fro thi God. Thou louedist 2 kijris on alle feeldis of whete. Feeld not sacrifice wijn to the Lord, and thei shuln not plesse to hym. The sacrifices of hem as breede of mournynge men; alle that eten it shuln be defoulid. For the breed of hem, of the soule of hem, shal not entre in to the<sup>s</sup> hous of the Lord.

 5 What shuln 3e do in the solempne day, 6 in day of the fest of the Lord? Loo! sothely thei ben gon fro wastnesse.
 Egypt shal gedere hem, Memphis shal birie hem. A nettil shal enherit the desirable syluer of hem, a cloote in the 7 tabernaclis of hem. Days of visityng camen, days of zeldyng camen. Yrael, wite thou thee a fool, a wood prophete, a spirituel man, for the multitude of thi wickidnesse, and multitude of madnesse.
 8 A spier of Effraym with my God; the prophete is maad a gnare of fallynge, on alle the wayes of hym, wodenesse in the togidere, and thei schulen reste<sup>a</sup> a litil fro birthun of the kyng and of princes. For 11 Efraym multipliede auteris to do synne, auteris weren maad to hym in to trespas.

 Y schal write to hem my many fold lawis, 12 that ben arettid as alien lawis. Thei schu- 13 len brynge sacrifices, thei shulen offre, and ete fleischis; and the Lord schal not res-seyue tho. Now he schal haue mynde on the wickidnessis of hem, and he schal visite the synnes of hem; thei schulen turne in to Egypt. And Israel forzath his makere, 14 and bildide templis to idols<sup>o</sup>, and Judas multipliede stronge citees; and Y schal sende fier in to the citees<sup>p</sup> of hym, and it schal deuoure the housis of hym.

CAP. IX.

Israel, nyle thou be glad, nyle thou 1 make ful out ioie as puplis; for thou hast do fornicacioun fro thi God. Thou louedist meede on alle the cornflooris of wheete. The cornfloor and pressour schal 2 not feede hem, and wyn schal lie to hem.
 Thei schulen not dwelle in the lond of the 3 Lord. Effraym turnede azen in to Egypt, and eet defoulid<sup>a</sup> thing among Assiriens.
 Thei schulen not offre wyn to the Lord, 4 and thei schulen not plesse hym. The sacrifices of hem ben as breed of mourneris; alle that schulen ete it schulen be de-foulid. For the breed of hem is to the lijf of hem; thei schulen not entre in to the hous of the Lord. What schulen 3e 5 do in the solempne dai, in the dai of the feeste of the Lord? For lo! thei ben 6 goon out fro distriyng. Egypt schal ga-dere hem togidere, Memphis schal birie siluer of hem, a clote schal be in the ta-7 bernaclis of hem. Daies of visitacioun ben comun, daies of zeldyng ben comun.

 Knowe 3e, that Israel is a fool, a wood profete, a spiritual man, for the multitude of thi wickidnesse is also the multitude sert, as the first applis of a litil fyge tree.

 In the hee3t therof Y see3 the faders of hem; forsothe thei entriden to Belpagor, and ben alienyd awaye in to confusioun, out free childre in men. Bot and wo to hem, whanne I shal go away fro hem.

 13 Effraym, as I sy3 Tyrus, was foundid in fairnesse; Effraym schal leede out his 14 sonnes to the slear. Lord, 3yue thou to thou<sup>t</sup> to hem a 3ate of wombe with oute 15 free children, and drie tetis. Al wickid-hem hateful; for the malice of her wickidnesse Y shal caste hem out of myn hous.

 Y shal not putte to, that Y loue hem.
 16 Alle princis of hem goynge away; Effraym is smyten, the root of hem is dried vp; thei shuln not make fruyte. That and 3if thei shuln gendre, Y shal slea the most loued thingus of the wombe of hem.
 17 The Lord my God shal caste hem away, for thei herden not hym; and thei shuln be wagringe in naciouns, yng is maad now on alle the weies of hym, woodnesse is in the hous of his God.

 Thei synneden deepli, as in the<sup>r</sup> daies of 9 grapis in desert, Y si3<sup>s</sup> the fadris of hem cop therof; but thei entriden to Belfegor, and weren alienyd in confusioun, and thei weren maad abhomynable as tho thingis whiche thei louyden. Effraym as a brid 11 beryng, and of the wombe, and of conseyuung. That if thei nurschen her sonnes, 12 Y schal make hem with out children among men. But also wo to hem, whanne Y schal go awei fro hem. Y si3 that Ef- 13 fraym was as Tire, foundid in fairnesse; and Effraym schal lede out hise sonnes to the sleere. Lord, 3yue thou to hem; what 14 schalt thou 3yue to hem? 3yue thou to hem a wombe with out children<sup>t</sup>, and drie tetis. Alle the wickidnessis of hem ben 15 in Galgal, for there Y hadde hem hateful; for the malice of her fyndyngis. Y schal caste hem out of myn hous; Y schal not leie to, that Y loue hem. Alle the princes of hem goen awei. Effraym is smyten, 16 the roote of hem is dried vp; thei schulen not make fruyt. That thou3 thei gendren, Y schal sle the moost louyd thingis of her wombe. My God schal caste hem away, 17 hem is departid, now thei shuln perishe.

 He shal breke to gydre the symulacris of

As the morewtid passith, the king of aunce is disturblid togidere. Y schal not<sup>9</sup> do the strong veniaunce of my wratlthe.

Y schal not turne, to leese Effraym; for Y am God, and not man. Y am hooli in the myddis of thee, and Y schal not entre in to a citee. Thei schulen go after the<sup>10</sup>

CAP. V.

Here 3e this word, for Y reise on 3ou 1

 he schal not put to, that it rise azen; the virgyn of Israel is cast down in to hir

 and of which an hundrid wenten out, ten and nyle 3e entre in to Galgala, and 3e

 Galgal schal be led caitif, and Bethel schal

Lord shal shewe these thingus, and ma-ieste<sup>a</sup> of the Lord shal appere; and a cloude shal be, as and to Moyses was schewid, and as whan Salomon axide, that the place shulde be halewid to grete God.
 9 Forsoth greetli he tretid wysdom, and as hauynge wysdom he offride sacrifice of halewyng, and of parfourmyng of the 10 temple. As and Moyses preyde to the Lord, and fjr came down fro heuen, and wastide the brent sacrifice; as and Salomon preyde, and fjr came down fro heuen, and wastide the brent sacrifices<sup>b</sup>.
 11 And Moyses saide, For that it is not clensid, that was for synne, and it is 12 waastid. Also and Salomon in eizte days 13 wirshipide the halewyng. Forsothe and these same thingis weren born in discripciouns, and the<sup>c</sup> almeries of Neemye; and he makynge a litil bible, gadride of cuntrees bokis, and of prophetis, and of Daud, and epistlis of kyngus, and of 14 jiftis. Also sothely and Judas gadride alle tho thingus whiche he lernyde by bateil, that bifelle to vs, and thei<sup>d</sup> ben 15 anentus vs. Therefore 3if 3e desiren these, 16 sende 3e whiche shuln bere to 3ou. And so we to doynge purifyng, han write to 3ou; therfore 3e shuln do wel, 3if 3e 17 shuln do these days. Forsothe God that delyuerde his peple, and 3eeldide<sup>e</sup> his eritage to alle, and<sup>f</sup> rewme, and presthaue mercy of<sup>g</sup> vs, and shal gadre fro 19 vnder heuen in to the holy place; for-sothe he delyuerde vs fro grete perelis, Machabeus, and his bretheren, and of purifying of the grete temple, and of bateilis, that perteynen to noble Antioch, that the place schulde be halewid to greet<sup>1</sup> God, this cloude schewide; and as hau-ynge wisdom he offryde sacrifice of halew-and Moyses preiede to the Lord, and fier cam down fro heuene, and wastide the brent sacrifice; as and Salomon preiede, and fier cam down fro heuene, and wastide the brent sacrifice. And Moyses seide, For 11 that it is not clensid, that was for synne, and it was wastid. Also and Salomon in 12 eizte daies made solempne the halewyng.

 Forsothe and these same thingis weren 13 put yn<sup>m</sup> in discripciouns, and expositiouns of Neemye; and as he makide<sup>n</sup> a litte sotheli and Judas gaderide alle tho thingis

 he seide, for these thingis that he hadde in maundementis of the kyng, that in al

 Forsothe in the dai ordeyned Heliodore 14

But not aftir myche tyme the king<sup>1</sup> sente an<sup>t</sup> elde man of Antiochie*, which schulde constreyne Jewis, that thei schulden translate hem silf fro lawis of fadris and of God; also he schulde defoule the <sup>2</sup> temple, 'that was<sup>u</sup> in Jerusalem, and schulde clepe it of Jouis Olympij, and in Garisym, as thei weren, that enhabitiden the place, of Jouis hospital.
